Conhecido pelo codinome (Tag) de SORÓ, é especializado no estilo de grafite throw-up ou Bomber (arte vandal), atua desde o ano de 1999 aprimorando seus conhecimentos artísticos com o intuito de um dia ser reconhecido no cenário mundial das artes.

A 7 anos vem realizando intervenções através de um projeto social implantado nas comunidades locais (Paz nas comunidades), reunindo artistas afim de trazer cultura, conhecimento e uma melhor perspectiva de vida as crianças e jovens que se encontram em situação de vulnerabilidade pelo descaso das autoridades locais, trazendo consigo o lema "Antes sujo de tinta, do que sujo de sangue!" fazendo analogia a extrema violência que esses jovens são submetidos devido a forte influência do crime organizado da região, mostrando assim que existe uma saída melhor para todos através da arte.

I am a freelance fashion model located in North Carolina. I love to inspire other models in the fashion industry. My goals of modeling is to make front cover on more magazines publication, some day be published on a billboard and model in more fashion shows. I also have another goal outside of the modeling industry and that is to open up my own store some day and sell clothes etc. Although I have achieved many of my goals which were to make back cover and most inspiring model in the magazine publications and to be able to slay the runway; but I still have some to accomplish and with the grace and faith of God I will get it done. If you're on social media feel free to like and follow me on both Facebook and Instagram (Mrz. Uniquefashion). I will follow you back.

Zivile Petrauskaite

Hello lovely readers,

My name is Živilė and I am a singer and a model from Lithuania, currently living in United Kingdom. In this article I want to share with you my story of how I got into music and modelling industry and what challenges I faced.

I had a passion for music since very early age and my musical journey started in music school where I had choral singing lessons. Soon enough my talent was noticed by one of my music teachers who invited me to join her ensemble and a pop group. Since then I took part in various singing competitions and events in Lithuania and Germany. I truly enjoyed the experience and had the best time of my life.

I always felt that music was something I wanted to do professionally so I decided to take it further and gain education abroad. In 2010 I moved to United Kingdom and enrolled to Popular Music course. I spent 3 years studying live performance and successfully graduated in 2015. During the ceremony I also had a huge honour to meet Sir Patrick Stewart, an actor and a Chancellor of University of Huddersfield. It was an amazing and unforgettable experience.

Shortly after the graduation I went to Cyprus to work there as a singer. This experience has helped me to gain more self confidence performing in front of international audience. I also learnt to be more self disciplined as you can imagine I had to prepare new program every week in such a short time scale.

The most fun part was learning the songs in foreign languages as we had lots of holiday makers from all around the world. Although, being a singer requires lots of practicing and hard work, it is nothing more exciting when seeing happy faces in a public having a great time.

My other passion apart music is modelling. I have been modelling for 3 years now. I wanted to try it long time ago, however I was constantly judging my body and comparing myself to other models thinking that I was not good enough. The older I got the more I realised that I should just follow my heart and do what makes me happy, so I decided to try my luck. I started intensively applying for castings and one day I received a phone call from a modelling agency who invited me to their studio for a test shoot. When I got there everything seemed so professional and exciting. I had my hair and make up done to a high standard and worked with a few different photographers. At the end of the shoot I met a lady who was in charge of this "agency" and she talked me into signing a contact and buying a portfolio which cost me lots of money. She complemented me saying that I had lots of potential in modelling industry, however once I received the pictures I have never heard anything back from her.

Even though, I was scammed It did not stop me from achieving my goals. I actively started looking for opportunities and photographers to work with to build my portfolio and gain some experience. Soon enough I started receiving bookings for shoots and invitations to fashion shows. I had a pleasure to be part of some amazing shows including: York Fashion week 2019, African fashion week in Hull 2019, Eco-friendly fashion show 2019, Wedding fashion shows in York and Leeds 2019 and London fashion show 2021. I worked with so many creatives involving other models, designers and stylists. One of the most fun experiences was walking a flash mob organised by a designer Pierre Garroudi. His designs have been worn by some of the world's famous style icons from Naomi Campbell to Scarlet Johansson. I truly admire his work and skills, he makes really unique and extravagant garments.

Throughout my modelling career I have been photographed in various styles including fashion, commercial, editorial and glamour. I have also been published a numerous of times in fashion magazines and collaborated with brands by promoting their products.

Modelling and singing give me so much pleasure, they go hand in hand together as I am able to share the stage both as a model, as well as a singer.

Now I am up for more challenges and one of them is to try myself in acting. I am also happy to announce that soon I will be publishing my showreel, so watch the space.

I am truly grateful for Glitz magazine for giving me the opportunity to share my story here.

If I could give one piece of advice to all the people out there, it would be to dream big and believe in yourselves as everything is possible if you truly want something! Stay blessed.
